

VETERAN HISTORY Williams County, Ohio

A 640 page compilation of sketches, personal accounts, memoirs, letters, diaries, government reports, newspaper reviews, POW/MIA data files and county Memorial Rolls of Honor.

Editor, David Lupien has over the past five years assembled the material and created this most recent addition to local county history which for the first time pulls together the information telling the martial history of our county into one source with many new, original stories and files.

The book is being published by the Northwest Territory Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution of Bryan, Ohio as an Ohio Bicentennial project. To order your copy, please review the order form below. If you have the slightest desire to own this historical and memorial testament to our counties service members, do not hesitate to order. ONLY ONE PRINTING IS BEING PLANNED. Deadline for ordering is MAY 23, 2003.
